

HOUSING COMPANY OFFICERS

Walter F. Lester Chosen for President and John J. Corkery Secretary—Five Tracts of Land Are Offered for Building Houses—Company Officers Are to Secure Further Lists of Tracts for Building On.

The Norwich Housing company, when four of the five were present, the absent one being J. H. Drury of the House and Allen Arms company, the following officers were elected: President—Walter F. Lester. Secretary—John J. Corkery. Treasurer—Shepard D. Palmer. The meeting appointed the president and secretary to complete the by-laws, which were only partly made up at the meeting on Tuesday. An invitation was extended to hold the next convention at Middletown. The nomination of Mr. Crutenden was made by William W. Beckwith of this city. William W. Beckwith was elected one of the state directors for one year, representing the Norwich Housing company. President Johnston's Address. Closer co-operation between the chambers of commerce and city and town officials for the upbuilding of the community, a more careful scrutiny of proposed legislation, and constant study of the important problems of state finance, taxation, transportation, sewerage policy, and industrial legislation, with a view to making helpful suggestions by the Norwich Housing company, were the subjects of Johnston's address as president of the State Chamber of Commerce. He said in reviewing the year's activities that the state body as well as the local organizations had done valuable work and that the year had been in fact a year of progress. Other speakers were Governor Marcus H. Holcomb, former Governor Rollin S. Woodruff, and Mr. Howard R. Heydon, secretary of the New Jersey State Chamber of Commerce, and John Humphrey, president of the Connecticut Association of Commercial and Civic Executives. The year, said President Johnston, had been one of new problems, resulting from the radical change of a year ago, when it was voted to change the old organization from the State Business Men's association of Connecticut to the Connecticut Chamber of Commerce, and to broaden the field to include "every thoughtful citizen of the state." There was a phenomenal spread of commerce enthusiasm in the state during the year, he said, not so much in the way of new associations, but in the development of old business men's associations into live, up-to-date chambers of commerce. "A year ago," he said, "I was represented at the state convention of the chamber of commerce with a reported membership of 6,048 and today we have 37 chambers of commerce and business men's associations affiliated with us with a reported membership of 12,345, an increase of nearly 100 per cent."

STOMACH UPSET?

Get at the Real Cause—Take Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets

That's what thousands of stomach sufferers are doing now. Instead of taking laxatives or trying to "cleanse" their system by eating unwholesome food, they are taking Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets. These tablets are doing the work of the liver and bowels, are performing their natural functions, away from the stomach and stomach troubles. If you have a bad taste in your mouth, a sour, bitter, or watery taste, don't care feeling, no ambition or energy, troubled with indigestion, you should take Olive Tablets, the substitute for calomel. Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets are a purely vegetable compound mixed with olive oil. You will know them by their olive color. They do the work without straining, cramps or pain. ## Fashion Fabrics

The styles are exacting but clever—the fabrics with which the style is developed are cleverer yet. Georgette Crepe, sheer and semi-transparent, is a pure silk weave as light and dainty as a butterfly's wing. Used in conjunction with heavier silks and velvets the effect is most charming. 40 inches wide and only $1.25 a yard. All the daytime and evening shades. For the out-door woman a Sport Suit of Corcoran in Havana, Marine, Delft, Most Petrograd, Salmon, Ivory or Black is most desirable. 27 inches wide and the price is a dollar a yard.

RULING FOR POLICE COURTS AND JUSTICES

Attorney General Says They Cannot Exceed Statute Limitation in Involuntary Farm Commitments.

Attorney General George E. Hinman has given an opinion to Dr. Henry M. Pollock, superintendent of the Norwich Hospital for the Insane, relative to the commitment of alcoholic victims to the farm for inebriates, which is of interest to every court of limited criminal jurisdiction, including the Norwich police court.

The attorney general's opinion, chapter 338, passed at the session of 1915, establishing the farm, did not extend the jurisdiction of the court, and the jurisdiction must continue to be subject to general statutory limitations of the court. In other words, though the act of 1915 authorized the commitment of the inebriate to the farm for a minimum of three years, with the proviso that the trustee might, upon such conditions as he might determine, permit the inebriate to be liberated for a reading of the period of commitment, the judge committing him to the farm must not exceed the limitations of his court.

The precise language of the attorney general's opinion is as follows: "It is my opinion no provision of the act in question increases the jurisdiction of any court, and that the term of commitment to said farm by a court of limited jurisdiction provides that he may be committed for three years, but the term of the commitment of the latter is limited to not less than four, nor more than twelve months. The meaning of the word 'inebriate' has been so enlarged by the act of 1915 that the act has been made a dispensation comes under it."
